

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Salt river rose several inches yesterday from the effect of mountain rains.

Two carloads of piping for the water company arrived by yesterday's train.

Yesterday morning, to the wife of W. M. Corlett, was born a fine chubby baby.

A dash of rain, accompanied by distant lightning, favored Phoenix last evening.

The committee on reception to the Territorial Convention delegates will hold a meeting this morning at the Mills House at 9 o'clock, sharp.

The Democratic County convention will, in all probability, hold its session in the Assembly Chamber at the Capitol, as the Republicans may need the Patton Opera House several days.

Five cars of cedar piles, ninety feet long, passed Maricopa last evening, bound eastward to the railroad break near Benson. It is proposed to lift the track some distance above its present level.

Several young men, returning Saturday night from a social, distinguished themselves by discharging pistols within the city limits. Luckily for them the Marshal was not in the vicinity at the time.

The team of John McCoy made a lively runaway down Center street just at dark last night. Night Watchman Blankenship jumped on a saddle horse on the street and rounded up the runaways in the south part of town.

Tempe is having a boom just now in her efforts to add to the population of Maricopa County. Last Friday Fisher Bailey was presented by his wife with a fine girl baby, their first child. On Saturday, to beat the record, to the wife of Roe Bohannon was born two healthy babies, also girls.

A drunken Mexican living on Monroe street was arrested by Deputy Marshal Blankenship, about midnight last night, for wife beating. When nearing the city prison, the Mexican made a break for liberty, but the officer was too quick for him and he was soon placed behind the bars.

Floral Lodge of Good Templars held a very pleasant entertainment prepared for their friends Saturday evening at the Cartwright School house. Songs and recitations constituted the programme, after which refreshments, consisting of cake and ice cream were partaken of freely. Two hundred and fifty persons were in attendance.

While Doctor and Mrs. Helm were driving, Saturday evening, in a road cart, a few miles west of the city, the springs broke, precipitating Mrs. Helm to the ground and the Doctor in front of the foot board upon the heels of the young colt. The reins never left the Doctor's hands, however, and after being dragged several hundred yards and being run over by the cart, he brought the colt to a standstill. Another rig was taken and the Doctor and Mrs. Helm brought back to the city. The former is quite badly skinned up on the side of one leg.

PERSONAL.

Candidate Crenshaw took in Tempe, yesterday.

Walter Johnston, of Tempe, was in the city yesterday.

W. L. George, agent of the stage line at Prescott, is in this city and will remain several days.

Deputy Sheriff Morgan, of Gila Bend, came in on yesterday's train and will stay over convention times.

Miss Lena Purdy leaves on this morning's train for San Bernardino where she goes to continue her studies.

Mrs. Dr. Hughes telegraphs that she has been delayed on her eastern journey several days, by washouts, this side of Denning.

W. W. and A. G. Huston, of Tempe, are in the city. The former is quite recently from Payson, Gila County, whence he brought a herd of 285 goats down to pasture near McDowell.

P. H. Coyle and John R. Norton went to Tempe yesterday, to see the delegation from the Butte City to the Democratic Convention. Mr. Coyle is leaving no stone unturned to secure the nomination for Recorder.

While returning from Cartwright Saturday evening, Miss Nora Buck was thrown from her horse. As she fell the brute latched out with his heels, barely touching the young lady on the forehead, yet with sufficient force to raise a large swelling. It was a narrow escape from death.

J. W. Wentworth, an old-time citizen of Gila county, arrived in the city yesterday, from Globe, coming on horseback over the Reno mountain road. He is a delegate to the Territorial Convention and brings with him the proxies of the other members of the Gila county delegation, to-wit: Messrs. J. A. Hamill, Chas. Martin, Hampton Ellis and F. T. Powers.

PREFERRED LOCALS.

E. E. Prowell, the Opera House druggist, finds that times are now the opposite of dull in Phoenix. His fine stock of drugs, perfumery and fancy articles attract to his store abundant custom, in addition to those who come to quaff the cooling nectar from the soda fountain. He has just received, in response for a demand for some articles superior to those usually sold in this Territory, a large consignment of trusses of various sizes and shapes to fit any one who may be so unfortunate as to need such an appliance. They are warranted for two years and are guaranteed to combine all the points useful in a truss. The moderate prices charged for them is not the least of their recommendation. For the use of the lame and halt an extensive assortment of well constructed crutches has also been obtained. Those needing such articles should not fail to visit the Opera House Drug Store, on Center street.

For a first-class breakfast go to the Maricopa House, at Maricopa.
